

Short Biography

Dr Arman Zaharil Mat Saad received his undergraduate training from Trinity College Dublin, University of Dublin in the Republic of Ireland and his early postgraduate qualifications from the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland after completed Basic Surgical Training by obtaining Associate Fellowship and later Masters in Surgery (Plastic Surgery) from Universiti Sains Malaysia.

His initial training in Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery were in multiple centers around Republic of Ireland that include Pediatric, Hand & Microsurgery and Aesthetic Surgery. Subsequently he came back and work at Universiti Sains Malaysia where he obtained his Masters in Surgery and now holding position of Medical Lecturer and Consultant in Plastic, Reconstructive, Hand & Microsurgery. He has more than fifteen years experiences in this field.

He has patience for reconstructive microsurgery and is one of the talented figure in super-microsurgery in the country. He performed various complex microsurgical reconstruction in all body regions, lymphoedema super-microsurgery, upper & lower limbs replantation, vascular access surgeries, and peripheral vascular surgery. He also performed numerous amount of breast reconstruction, nose and ear reconstruction as well as cleft lip and palate, and correction of congenital deformities. He also has vast experience in managing complex wound and burns patients.

Education and Training

1. MB., BCh., BAO., BA., MA (University of Dublin, Trinity College)
2. Basic Surgical Training (Royal College of Surgeons, Dublin, Ireland)
3. Associate Fellow Royal College of Surgeon (Dublin, Ireland)
4. Masters in Surgery (Plastic Surgery) USM

Profesional Membership

1. Malaysian Medical Association.
2. Malaysian Society of Plastic & Reconstructive Surgery
3. National Specialist Register (Plastic Surgery)

Special Interest

1. Reconstructive Microsurgery
2. Cleft Lip & Palate
3. Lymphoedema
4. Breast Reconstruction
5. Ear Reconstruction
6. Wound Healing