

Dr. Muhammad Firdaus bin Abas graduated from Universiti Sains Malaysia in 2005. He underwent his training as house officer in Hospital Tuanku Fauziah Kangar. He then continue his general surgery training as a medical officer in Hospital Tengku Ampuan Afzan Kuantan before he joined master programme in Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery in Universiti Sains Malaysia. During his master programme he trained in Hospital Universiti Sains Malaysia and Hospital Kuala Lumpur. He completed his training in 2015. He then worked as a plastic and reconstructive surgeon in Hospital Sultanah Aminah, Johor Bahru till December 2016. He started the plastic and reconstructive surgery services in Hospital Tengku Ampuan Afzan, Kuantan Pahang in January 2017 and is currently the head of plastic and reconstructive unit there. He also visits Hospital Sultan Haji Ahmad Shah Temerloh and Hospital Pekan monthly to provide plastic and reconstructive surgery services to the entire state of Pahang.