

Short Biography

Dr Salmi Mohamed Sukur received her undergraduate medical degree from University Of Malaya, Malaysia in 2001. She obtained her Master in Plastic Surgery from Universiti Sains Malaysia in 2010. She is a gazetted Plastic & Reconstructive Surgeon with Ministry of Health Malaysia since 2011. She is currently working as Consultant Plastic & Reconstructive Surgeon in Department of Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery Hospital Kuala Lumpur. She has performed many plastic surgical procedures which include reconstructive and burn surgical procedures. She has special interest in Burn and reconstructive surgery. She is also an Honorarium lecturer with Universiti Sains Malaysia, contributing in the post graduate training in plastic surgery. She is part of the technical committee for Advanced Program in Wound Care Management Subspecialty (Perioperative) Nursing Programme under Ministry of Health Malaysia. She is also the Visiting Plastic Surgeon in Hospital Tuanku Jaafar Seremban since 2013.

(MMC Reg. No. : 37907)

(NSR No. : 130849)

Education and Training

1. MBBS ( Universiti Malaya)
2. MS ( Plastic Surgery ) Universiti Sains Malaysia

Professional Membership

1. Malaysian Society of Plastic & Reconstructive Surgery (MSPRS)
2. Cleft Lip & Palate Association Malaysia ( CLAPAM)

Special Interest

Burn and Reconstructive Surgery

Research and Publication

1. Evaluations of bacterial contaminated full-thickness burn wound healing in Sprague Dawley rats treated with Tualang honey,
Indian Journal of Plastic Surgery,
Jan- Apr 2011 / Volume 44 / Issue 1